| 4 | Read the passage carefully. Being healthy is the most important activity you must have. Some people said health isn't important as it is. According to a medical study, health is so important for you and your life to live. Good health means that you are strong, having good movement and be able to do every thing. Bad health means that you are weak, having bad motion and are not able to do everything. Being very fat and having so much cholesterol can cause you to have a heart attack. And being skinny is also risky because you may have Vitamin D deficiency and a possible cause to have anemia. There are so many ways to lose fat and weight; the three best ways are: 1. stop eating fast foods, they have so much grease. 2. Jogging and exercising is the best way to be in a normal shape and feel light again. Run for at least 5 km every day. 3. Start eating vegetables and fruits. You should be worry if you are very skinny because you will experience weak bones and sometimes even anemia. The three best ways to be in a normal shape are: 1. Eat three eggs per day. It has a good source of Vitamin D. Don't eat more than three eggs because the eggs are having so much cholesterol. 2. Eat three meals per day, not fast foods. 3.
